

Reading Challenge Grid

Reading challenges can be chosen in any order- these ideas are designed to add variety to your reading!

Read a book from this year's CILIP Carnegie Medal shortlist.	Read a book personally recommended to you by the School Librarian.	Read a book written during the Victorian era.
Read a book that you tried reading previously but didn't finish.	Read a book that your parent or guardian read when they were a child.	Read a play.
Read a book recommended to you by somebody older than 60.	Read a book that wasn't originally printed in the English language.	Read a book written by an author who is neither British nor American.